Re: Proposal for Impact Films and Communication Campaigns for Your Programmes

Dear Sir/Madam,

Through programmes such as the YESS Girls Movement, Free Being Me, Surf Smart, Menstrual Hygiene Management and Kusafiri, the Ghana Girl Guides Association gives girls values-based, non-formal education that changes lives. Film Beyond Imagination (FBI) would like to help you show that impact to partners, sponsors, donors and the girls who could join next.

What we propose

- Impact films: short documentaries told by Guides, leaders and parents, following a programme from start to result.
- Partner and donor videos for WAGGGS reporting, sponsor updates and grant applications.
- Event coverage and live streaming of camps, rallies and ceremonies, so members and families across Ghana can watch.
- Recruitment and social media campaigns: short clips and photo stories that bring new girls and volunteers in.

What the Association gains

- Evidence of impact that builds trust with partners and sponsors.
- A library of footage you can reuse for years.
- NGO rates, with work planned around your programme calendar and budget.

Why FBI

We produce films, live broadcasts and communication campaigns across Ghana, and work respectfully with young people and communities.

We would welcome a short meeting to plan a first impact film and prepare a free quotation.

Yours faithfully,
