Re: Proposal for a Media Partnership on Weddings, Corporate and Destination Events

Dear Sir/Madam,

Lionheart Events plans weddings, corporate events and destination celebrations for clients who expect the highest standard. Film Beyond Imagination (FBI) would like to be your dedicated media partner, so every event you deliver is filmed, photographed and shared to the same standard.

What we would provide

- Live streaming of weddings and corporate events for guests abroad, in HD on a private link or branded page.
- Cinematic wedding and event films, plus same-day highlight edits for social media.
- Photography and drone coverage of venues and destinations.
- Screens and live visuals for corporate events and launches.

What Lionheart gains

- One reliable media crew that knows your standards and works quietly in the background.
- Partner rates that leave room for your margin, with a referral fee on bookings you pass to us.
- A content library of your best events for your website and social media, to win new clients.

We have produced events and campaigns for clients including Criterion Media House and Kraftartz, and run our own live channel, FBI TV. We would be glad to cover one upcoming event with you as a trial at partner rates. We would welcome a short meeting.

Yours faithfully,

Jerbel Mark Addeh
