Re: Partnership Proposal for Live Streaming and Media Coverage of Farewell Services

Dear Sir/Madam,

With your roots in the UK and your Accra service hall, chapels of rest and gardens, T Cribb serves families who are often split between Ghana and abroad. When a loved one is repatriated or laid to rest in a home village, many relatives cannot travel. Film Beyond Imagination (FBI) would like to help you bring every one of them to the farewell.

What families would receive

- A private HD live stream of the wake, service and burial, in your Service Hall, gardens or the family's village, on a private link shared worldwide.
- A full recording of the day, delivered as a keepsake.
- A tribute video from family photographs, played at the service and shared online.
- Photography and a memorial film, with optional drone footage of the procession.

What T Cribb gains

- A premium add-on for your Ghana and UK families, delivered by our crew at partner rates that leave room for your margin.
- A permanent streaming setup option for your Service Hall, so every ceremony can be streamed.
- Promotional films and photography of your Accra premises for your website and social media.

Our crew is respectful and discreet, arrives early to test, and brings backup internet. To let you judge the quality, we will stream one farewell service at no cost to you or the family. We would welcome a short meeting at Dobro to arrange it.

Yours faithfully,

Jerbel Mark Addeh
